Killed in Korean Action, Wins High U. S. War Award

TOKYO — The Distinguished Service Cross for extraordinary heroism, second only to the Medal of Honor, has been awarded to a Honolulu Nisei corporal who died in action with the U.S. First Cavalry Division in Korea.

He was Corp. Eiji Morishige, of Honolulu, T. H. Morishige, was killed in action near Ochon on Feb. 4.

The Nisei was leader of a platoon of South Korean troops attached to his company which had been selected to hold an important hill. Midway up the slope, the company was subjected to intense small arms and automatic weapons fire.

"Realizing the strategical importance of the hill and seeing his men were faltering in the face of enemy fire, Morishige rushed forward in front of his platoon, firing his weapon and throwing hand grenades at the enemy," the citation declared.

"Inspired by the heroism and aggressive leadership of Corp. Morishige, the platoon followed him and closed with the enemy with such ferocity that the enemy troops were forced to flee in disorder after suffering heavy casualties.

Morishige, who is survived by his parents and six brothers and sisters, enlisted in the army several years ago and was stationed in Japan before the Korean War broke out.

Willie's Big Act

He went through several phases in his short, uneventful life. One of these was the time when he used to say, "Look at all those Japs!" It was a typical Nisei comment, of course, but Willie had it in spades. He felt he wanted to act like a hakujin. It was a big act but it satisfied his yearning to be above the milling throng and to sneer down at the peasants.

The while thing started on the streetcar.

On the streetcar, Willie would have a hard time deciding whether to sit on the same seat with a strange Nisei girl or sit with another stranger. (There were only two empty seats). He used to stand in the aisle, trying hard to wear a nonchalant look on his face, yet in the meantime wondering whether he should take a chance and sit beside the girl.

You see Willie was weaned on comic books and the dime novel and the pulp magazine like True Confessions. These outlets of literature fixed in Willie's mind an appealing idea of idealized romance that bubbled madly and furiously in his head while he was trying to decide on his course of action. He used to steal a glance at the pretty Nisei girl's face and would become enraptured with the mystery that a girl's face could radiate.

Instinct, however, reluctantly pushed Willie into the seat with the non-Nisei. At the next stop, the Nisei girl would step off and Willie would be left with frustration stabbing at his heart. In the literature that he used to read, Willie got the idea that the girl would turn around and flutter her eyelashes.

With Nisei men, however, there was no problem. Willie would always sit with a stranger.

Wanted: Nisei Actor For Mr. Moto Role

NEW YORK — The producers of the Mr. Moto detective mystery program, heard every Sunday during the summer over the National Broadcasting Company radio network, are looking for a radio actor of Japanese ancestry to play the title role in the series based on the stories created by J. P. Marquand.

The producers of the show are reported to want to get an actor who can be identified with the radio character in ancestry and speech. Mr. Moto is described on the program as a San Francisco-born Nisei.

Will Look Into Status Of Naturalized Issei 'Deported' In '46--Harris

Assurances that the legal point of whether or not naturalized Canadians of Japanese ancestry had lost their citizenship status by returning to Japan in 1946 under the "repatriation" scheme, was given by Minister of Immigration Harris.

Meeting with two representatives of the National JCCA, George Tanaka executive secretary and F. Andrew Brewin, K.C., legal counsel, on July 16 in Ottawa, Mr. Harris promised that the matter would be referred to his department and if necessary, to the Justice Department to secure a legal clarification of the point brought up by the National JCCA.

Mr. Brewin pointed out to the Immigration Minister that his interpretation was that these naturalized citizens were not "deported" but had gone to Japan voluntarily, therefore they did not lose their citizenship status and are able to return to Canada. At the present, they are denied readmission to Canada by virtue of an Order-in Council by which it is claimed they are no longer Canadian citizens.

On the other points contained in the brief, George Tanaka detailed the inadmissionable cases of re-entry and immigration in which there were compassionate reasons for individual consideration.

Mr. Harris failed to commit himself on these cases but pointed out the present restrictions on Asiatic immigration. He also said that any question of immigration from Japan would have to await the Japanese Peace Treaty which, he noted, was due to be signed in the fall of 1951.

Japan to Get B.C. Iron Shipments Starting Soon

VANCOUVER — First shipment of British Columbia iron ore to the Orient is expected to leave late this month or early August. It is destined for Japanese steel furnaces.

When shipments get in full swing, 80,000 tons of concentrated ore are expected to be sent to Japan each month. Ore deposits are those owned by the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway, on Vancouver Island.

VANCOUVER TEDBITS

By TED OTSU

VANCOUVER — The America Maru, a beautiful freighter of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha Line, marked the first return of this line after an absence of 20 years from Vancouver. One of the most modern and best equipped of ships, the MV America Maru came to Vancouver to take a large shipment of grain back to the homeland.

A quiet interview with a gangway watch who was standing near the entrance to the ship revealed several things.

The new ship had been launched about six months ago and had already crossed the Panama Canal and touched the Atlantic before sailing back to the Pacific and to Vancouver. The commander is Arakichi Mukai who had acted as first-mate on the OSK Line for 25 years.

The ship is equipped with radar and in the mid-Pacific, the captain himself can be relieved of his duties since the vessel can be controlled automatically by radar.

A sister ship to the America Maru is due to appear in Vancouver soon, the gangway watch said. Two passengers were aboard the ship, both students who have arrived from Japan and China. Mr. Shinna and Mr. Sha will leave for New York to enroll in a university there.

According to this veteran of the sea-waves, the Japanese people now have been almost completely converted to the western style of living. It is now a common sight to see girls and boys walking hand in hand on the streets while a few years ago, no one would have dared.

Nisei Girl's 'Return to the Dark Ages'

A Canadian girl, now married to a businessman in Tokyo, who lived the war years at Tashme, B. C., then resignedly accompanied her aging parents to Japan because, "I've got a much longer future than they," is the subject of a feature in the latest edition of McLean's.

Under the title "Marie Went Back to the Dark Ages," the story of Marie Kawamoto, a Nisei who grew up in Burnaby and West Vancouver and who is now Mrs. Peter Katsuno, is told by Pierre Berton, an editor of the semi-monthly Canadian magazine, who has been squiring the Far East in a search for likely material. He describes her change of environment as going "back to the Middle Ages," and becoming "a part of a culture and a way of life that bore no relationship to anything she had known before."

What he tells is [illegible] familiar to the Nisei, the true and always trying experiences of those who after being brought up and educated in North America finds himself, or herself as in this case, in the strange and often hostile homeland of his parents. It's the story that runs many parallels among thousands of Niseis who by choice or necessity are today living in Japan.

Berton relates Marie's difficulties and compromises, and frustrations and partial readjustment in her new surroundings. He writes of the girl, who, although her features are Japanese, is as "Canadian as an Okanagan apple" and "finds herself even more of a foreigner in the land of her ancestors."

"Yet," he says, "with the adaptability of women of all races and all times, she has managed to reach a compromise with new existence, just as her own mother and father, who came from Japan to Canada many years ago, adapted themselves to the strange Western civilization."

The Kawamoto's were moved from their Burnaby home to Tashme from where in the fall of 1946 they went to Japan, at first to stay in barracks along with other repatriates, then to her father's home town, a fishing village on the coast touching the Sea of Japan.

Later, Marie moved to Yokohama where she worked for the U.S. Occupation, then to Tokyo, where she got a job with the North West Airlines and then with an import and export firm. Here she met and married a Seattle-born Nisei, Peter Katsuno, who had graduated from the University of Washington and had been in Japan since 1939.

The article goes on to tell that at home the Katsunos maintain a life and home that is more Canadian than Japanese. Their choice of friends consists mostly of Niseis like themselves and where is a preference of western food in the Katsuno household.

Marie Katsuno admits to missing Canada badly despite the many adjustments she has made during the five years she has been in Japan, and that "the feeling of loneliness in the strange brown land comes on her most strongly at Christmastime."

JOINT ACTION ON IMMIGRATION

A few weeks prior to the presentation of the National JCCA brief to the Minister of Citizenship and Immigration, the Chinese Canadians made a similar submission on the question of Chinese entry into Canada. Although the text of the brief differs somewhat, the basic purpose is the same. They were both pleas to the Canadian government that the qualification of race be eliminated from Canada's immigration policy.

It would seem, therefore, that there is a basis for joint action. The immigration law as it now stands discriminates against persons of non European origin. There is every reason to believe that a united appeal in which minority and interested groups can participate can make a stronger case for the revocation of racial bars in our immigration laws.

PEACE TREATY COMMENTARY

With the Communist powers excepted, the 50-odd nations who actively fought or were allied against Japan in a war that ended with the latter's crushing defeat six years ago are planning for a peace parley that will bring the Pacific war to an official finish. The date and the place have not been set. Now the full draft of the proposed Japan Peace Treaty accepted in principle by the countries which are prepared to participate in the peace talks, has been unveiled.

The terms of the treaty which has been called one of conciliation give Japan a soft and compromising peace. They sanely avoid the pitfalls of the past such as the harsh and impossible Treaty of Versailles which led to the resurrection of a jingoistic regime in Germany. Moreover they reflect a determined desire on the part of the so-called West to bring Japan into their orbit in the split of the world into two armed camps.

On the other hand the moderate provisions indicate that Japan has faithfully abided by the surrender terms. She has complied and co-operated with the victors that she is now considered worthy of taking her place in the family of free and sovereign nations.

By the terms, no restrictions will be placed on Japanese rearmament and Japan will not be placed under industry or trade limitations. She will not be required to pay cash or material reparations, although she may be called upon to give a certain amount of labor reparation (i.e. allowing her former enemies to ship raw materials to Japan to be processed there and returned without payment). She must accept the obligations of the United Nations Charter and must signify her intention of becoming a UN member.

Territorially Japan will be restricted to her four larger home islands together with adjacent smaller islands and must renounce her claim to her prewar overseas possessions including the Bonin and Ryukyu Islands which will be under UN trusteeship administered by the United States.

Thus will end Japan's [illegible] dreams of [illegible] conquest. She has been stripped of all her land gains she made since becoming a "modern" nation including what she was [illegible] following her [illegible] in the Sino-Japanese War of the [illegible] Century.

However, the [illegible] does not make a single reference to [illegible] which is more [illegible] than [illegible] to conclusion a [illegible] war [illegible] at preventing future wars but not even touching upon the root of Japan's [illegible] ments in China and Southeast Asia. To be sure Japan has [illegible] and [illegible] there [illegible] United States [illegible] and New Zealand [illegible] of Japan again as an aggressive state but there still remains the matter of 84 million Japanese with the rapidly increasing [illegible]

"East is East"

Love Story Via Hollywood

By LARRY TAJIRI

The subject of a California community's prejudice against persons of Japanese ancestry, once considered too hot for Hollywood to handle, is dissected in a motion picture which was completed recently and is now being edited.

In the story by Anson Bond who co-produced the picture Nisei and Issei farmers, still fearful of prejudice and mindful of the sorry experiences of mass evacuation and mass detention in relocation camps, are shown living somewhat uneasily in the valley. The subject of the area's antagonisms against the Japanese American group is crystallized by the return of a wounded Army officer from Korea with his wife, a Japanese girl who nursed him back to health.

The interracial couple become the targets of an attack by a woman scorned whose jealousy and spite threaten to incite an outbreak of violence, not only against the officer and his wife but against Japanese Americans in the valley as well.

HAPPY ENDING

It will be some months yet before "East Is East" is previewed but reports are that the film is not just a modern day transcription of the Madame Butterfly theme. The producers have some things to say about race prejudice and make their point through dramatic action. The romance of the officer and the Japanese girl has a happy ending, belying the Kiplingesque title of the picture.

"East Is East" was directed by King Vidor, one of Hollywood's ablest, who is no stranger to films of social comment. Mr. Vidor directed one of the first talkies to comment on the world and its people, the memorable "The Crowd" which starred James Murray. Mr. Vidor's credits since that time include many other films in which social comment was integrated into good theater.

The role of the Japanese girl, as everyone probably knows by now, is played by the Japanese actress, Yoshiko Yamaguchi, whose greatest previous success was in a picture called "Shina No Yoru" (China Night), the love story of a Japanese soldier and a Chinese girl. The song which that picture helped popularize later was banned in Japan by the militarists who were afraid that it might soften the people's attitude toward the Chinese. It was revived after the war (although banned in South Korea by the Syngman Rhee government for reasons best known to itself) and has become a favorite of American occupation soldiers. It can be heard today on juke boxes at Army post exchanges and in San Francisco's Chinatown.

FEATURED PLAYERS

Don Taylor, best known to film-goers as Elizabeth Taylor's husband in "Father of the Bride" and "Father's Little Dividend," plays the officer in the story, while Marie Windsor, a girl from Utah who has become one of Hollywood's favorite other women, does her best to break up the romance. Cameron Mitchell has an important role while Lane Nakano and May Takasugi play a Nisei farmer and his wife who befriend the Japanese war bride.

In order to assure the authenticity of the backgrounds, including shots of lettuce in the California sun, the film company took their cameras to Salinas where exteriors for the picture were shot. The final scenes, showing Miss Yamaguchi running along the shoreline, were taken on the Carmel coast.

Things of course are not as bad in Salinas, in the matter of race prejudice, as they are shown to be in the film—although they conceivably could have been. Although not all the Japanese Americans evacuated from the valley have returned, those who did have been reintegrated into the community's life and a JACL chapter is functioning in Salinas. The film story makes the point that a tank company, members of which were mostly from Salinas, was in the Philippines at the time of Pearl Harbor and that only a few of the 100 men who were captured b[illegible] nese returned from the [illegible] Death March. This [illegible] edly intensified [illegible] ing regarding pers[illegible] nese ancestry during [illegible] also probably was [illegible] those who sought [illegible] return of the evac[illegible] valley.

"East Is East" was originated by Anson Bond while he was a producer associated with [illegible] Classics, an independent com[illegible] ny which later merged with Eagle Lion. At that time the film was to be about an Americ[illegible] occupation officer in Japan who weds a Japanese girl. After the outbreak of the Korean [illegible] idea was revised to be the [illegible] of an American soldier and Japanese nurse with all [illegible] action taking place in Korea [illegible] Japan and with no comment [illegible] out the problems of the N[illegible] the United States.

一、日本の再武裝は制限しないが、日本島嶼に對する共同防衛の準備を行う

二、よる連合國が造船とセンイ産業を制限せよと要求したにも拘らず、日本の通商又は生産能力に制限を加えぬ

四、日本は賠償として金貨現物を支拂わないが、ある一定量の工業的技術と勞務で賠償する——（元敵國が日本に原料品を送つてくるのを加工して送り返すという方法で、イタリーの平和條約中にもこれがある）

五、日本は國連憲章に述べられた義務を受諾すると共に國連参加の意志を表明する

六、日本は元敵國に對し最惠國待遇を與える經濟的協力を約束し商業航空機の着陸、版權及特許に關する規約を守ること——（最惠國待遇というのは多くの相手國の中一番良い待遇を與えるということで、例えば日本が英米佛のうち米國の品物に最も低い關税をかけていたら英國に對しても米國なみの低率を與えるというのが日本の英國に對する最惠國待遇である）

七、日本は琉球列島、小笠原、マーカス島等を米國の信託制度の下におき米國がその管理權をもつ提案を受諾する

▲かくしてソ連はかねてから要求していた四大國のみの拒否權を行使できなくなるわけである

▲支那については各國で意見が分れているため、共産、國民のどちらを支那代表とするかは日本自身をしてきめさせることになつて居り、調印には日本との外交關係を斷絶した他の二十以上の諸國も招待されることになろう

▲米國による批准は來年初めまでのびるものと見られているが、もし條約の發効が九ケ月以上ものびる場合には各國が日本との間にだけ條約の効力を發し得る條項が設けられてある

桑港で調印される對日講和條約と同時に二つの協約も調印されることになろうといわれているのは日米軍事協定と太平洋協定の二つであるが、これは日本の再軍備には數年間を必要とするだろうから、その間米軍が占領軍としてでなく、アジアに於ける共産主義の脅威に對する安全保障のための軍隊として日本に留るもので、日米軍事協定が來春發効されれば、米國が一年駐兵費として日本に支拂つている三億ないし四億弗は支拂中止となるので、ダレス大使は日本も米國の援助をうける國家のリスト中に加えるだろうと述べている

六ケ月前から受付
老年恩給下附の申請

一方やはり來年一月から實施される六十五歳から六十九歳までのものに對する老年扶助については未だ施行細則などがないが、この方も二十年以上カナダ在住者たることを必要とされる

米加漁業協定へ

「峠の茶屋」と「青の洞門」

「おい」と聲を掛けたが返事がない。

軒下から奧を覗くとすすけた障子が立て切つてある。向う側は見えない。五六足の草鞋が淋しそうに庇から釣るされて、屈托氣にぶらり〳〵と搖れる。下に駄菓子の箱が三つ許りならんで、そばに五厘錢と文久錢が散らばつて居る。

夏目漱石の名作「草枕」の第二章の書き出しで、この一部分は「峠の茶屋」という題で小學校の讀本にも載つていたのであるから、多くの人々が記憶しているところであろう。

國連の要求を容れ會談再會

【スエーデン國ストックホルム發】スエーデン船グリップスホルム號で歸國途上のヤコブ・マリク・ソ連代表は十六日當地に上陸、目下開會中の休戰會議では交渉の結果、休戰はきつと成立するだろうと次のように語つたと報じられる

交渉によつて朝鮮に和平がもたらされることを切望するものだが、きつと停戰は成立するだろうと言つておかう

【開城附近國連基地發】リッヂウエイ大將が開城を中立地帯とし、記者をふくむ國連人選團の入市を許さないかぎり停戰會議に國連代表を送らないと嚴重抗議を申し込んで卅二時間後の十四日、共産軍はリ大將の要求を全面的に受諾する旨放送、リ大將も共産軍側の正式回答を得た結果、會談再開を代表者に命令したので停戰第三回會談が行われるにいたつた

【文山發】停戰第四回會談は十六日午前十時頃より行われ、午後二時すぎ終了した、リ大將の要求を受諾したので國連記者團ははじめて開城地區内に入ることを許された、會談建物へは代表と通譯以外は入ることは出來ない、ある觀測者は今までの二日間にわたる友好的な會談ぶりが續けられていけば、短時日のうちに議題を決定することも出來るであろうと見ている。

リッヂウエイ大將の休戰會談再會條件に對して金日成北鮮軍司令官の名によつて回答された放送文は次の通りである

われわれは開城を中立地帯とするあなたの要請に同意すると共に和平交渉が進行されるべきだと同意する。

われわれはすべてが相互の討議によつて解決されるべきだという基本を支持するが、會議が進行しないうちに片一方的な新聞報道は不公正だと信じる、しかし廿名の記者團をあなたの人選中に加え、會議に參加することに同意し、それに備える命令はすでに發した

朝鮮の野火が消えるはうれしい

六年前の八月十五日（休戰日）に日本の空がウソみたいにヒッソリと靜まり返つたことを思い出す。朝鮮でも近いうちに砲聲が納まることになれば、天地の間はなんとまが抜けたようにヒッソリしたものかとカエルの聲もしみじみと身にしむことだろう。

マリク停戰提唱、グロミイコ・カーク會談、リッヂウエイ最高司令官の停戰呼びかけと共産軍の應諾と急步調で舞臺は回りつつある。こんどこそ休戰ラッパが鳴りそうである。日本にとつても對岸の火炎の火照りでマユも焦げる思いだつた。いつなん時それが極東の大火に燃え擴つて日本列島もその業火に卷きこまれるかと薄氷を踏む心地であつた。

理屈は抜きにして、とにかく半島の野火が消されることは、さし迫つては東亞に世界大戰の火の手が上らぬことの何よりの保障になる。一先ずはそれでよい。軍需株などは下らば下れ、一向に構わない。

Bests to Meet Westerns In Congress Tournament

One of the queer quirks of the current baseball season [illegible] when Best Cleaners who [illegible] intermediate "A" League will meet Westerns [illegible] loop in the first round of the Toronto Senior Baseball Congress Tournament.

The game will be played on [illegible]day, July 21, starting at [illegible] pm. at the Millen Memorial Stadium.

[illegible] should prove to be an interesting contest when the two Nisei teams entered in the Congress tourney clash. Best Cleaners who are leading their own intermediate league as well as the perennial champions of the Toronto Nisei League, will make their first venture into Congress play. Westerns made their debut in the annual tourney in 1949 when they advanced to the Toronto finals. Westerns, however, have had a poor start this year, [illegible] occupying last place in the WT loop.

Best Cleaners moved into the first round of Congress play when they became intermediate [illegible] after defeating Saracini [illegible] action of the Etobicoke League 7-3 last Friday night at [illegible] Park. Fire-balling Tuck [illegible] Ishikura pitched an impressive [illegible] hitter with hustling Bob [illegible]

Girl, 16, Breaks Record

[illegible] Sachiko [illegible] short of the world's [illegible] seconds.

Speedy Aki Watanabe was the sparkplug as he banged out two hits in four trips while stealing three bases. Bill [illegible] had three hits to lead the Nisei team in that department.

In a regular league game played on July 11, Best Cleaners continued on their rampaging ways by swamping Tigers 15-6 behind the [illegible] pitching of Ken Nakamura. Backing up the rookie's [illegible] effort, Tad Miura with three hits and Elmer Harafuji with two hits contributed [illegible] to the attack.

Young Nisei Hurler In Okanagan League Whiffs 20 Batters

KELOWNA, B. C. — Young George Wakabayashi topped the seasonal record of 19 strikeouts that he had set in a game against Penticton Pirates earlier in the season when he sent 20 batters down swinging futilely at the ozone in a recent 8-0 win against the Summerland Red Sox.

Wakabayashi who heaves the pill for the first-place Kelowna Chiefs in the South Okanagan Junior Baseball League, established himself as the outstanding junior pitcher of the interior with his 20-strikeout shutout win.

The opposing team just managed three hits off the only Nisei player on the roster as his curve ball was working to perfection and he used a baffling change of pace.

"That was the best exhibition of junior pitching I've ever seen", was Red Sox manager Joe Sheeley's comment after the game.

Wakabayashi also showed his versatility by stealing three bases while getting two hits.

Yamada Fastballers In Win and Loss

With Mits Tanaka hurling four-hit ball and smacking a homer, Yamada Studios banging out 17 safeties blasted Continental Can 19-5 last week. Maw Mori, Dick Matsumoto and Tak Hayashida each banged out a pair of hits.

Recently, Yamada Studios were not so fortunate. Facing pitcher Cliff Farrell of CPR, they could garner but only five hits while whiffing 15 times as they went down 11-5.

Jackie Tanaka started for the [illegible] and was relieved by rookie Paul Tokiwa. They permitted 13 hits. Ken Atherley caught.

At bat, Tak Hayashida had three for four including a homer.

Hashimoto Tops Batting Derby With Robust .611

HAMILTON — In a recent [illegible] at Eastwood Park in [illegible] the first-place Cubs [illegible] and Cardinals [illegible] to pro[illegible] their [illegible] game lead over Sheeleys as the latter team [illegible] a soft 20-8 [illegible] Giants.

Ken Hashimoto came up with [illegible] performance of the day [illegible] three hits to pace [illegible] win after [illegible] early lead [illegible] of his three hits [illegible] outstanding [illegible] with [illegible] average [illegible] in the [illegible] and H. [illegible]

2,500 See Alta JCCA All-Stars Lose Twice to Lethbridge Cubs

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. — 2,500 fans, mostly pulling for the Alberta JCCA All-Stars, jammed Lethbridge's Henderson Park on Dominion Day to witness the JCCA All-Stars pit their untested strength against the Lethbridge Cubs, a "hakujin" team in the Southern Alberta's Senior Big Six Loop. The All-Stars suffered 5-0 and 9-2 defeats in both ends of the twin bill but it was apparent that the team with more practice as a unit, could pan out into a smooth aggregation.

Y. Kunimoto and Sid Saga (Magrath Evacs), Mush Uyesugi (Taber Firemen), Jim Kanashiro (Coaldale Cubs), S. Karaki and M. Kitagawa (Raymond Busseis), Yosh Matsumoto, Ken Tsujiura, and Push Matsumiya (Picture Butte Bluebirds).

In the afternoon tilt, Arnold Godington, prospect for the New York Yankees, held the All Stars to a two-hit shutout, while striking out 14. Both hits were collected by pitcher Sid Saga who held the Cubs to seven hits. Saga, one of the capable pitchers in the newly formed JCCA League, is from the Magrath Evacs.

In the evening game, Lethbridge [illegible] Shimpo [illegible] took the mound for the All-Stars but was pounded heavily by the bat happy Cubs who collected 15 hits and nine runs before the last inning was over. The All Stars fared better in this game in the scoring department, thanks to the timely pinch hitting of Sid Saga, and were able to net two runs. Wally Granberg of the Cubs, however, limited the Nisei to three hits.

New players seen on the diamond in this game were Yagi Kaga (Taber Firemen), S. Mikado (Magrath Evacs), R. Kitagawa (Raymond Busseis), Jack Ohno (T.B.C.?), M. Oshiro, M. Matsui, Kiyo Moriyama and Y. Osaki (Picture Butte Bluebirds).

It is reported that the JCCA All Stars may organize into a regular team and may enter a Senior or Intermediate team next year.

Two Upsets Feature Bussei Doubles Matches at Trinity

The Toronto YBS Tennis Club tournament rolled right along [illegible] summer temperature [illegible] Sunday at the Trinity [illegible] with the doubles matches [illegible] played off in different [illegible]

Ginny Kawasaki and Fumi [illegible] defending champs in [illegible] doubles, barely squeezed through to the finals after a [illegible] battle with Mich Isozaki [illegible] Ruby Morita, the rapidly improving new ladies combo team. Nisei Resigned to Cellar Spot, To Play in Seattle

By TED OTSU

VANCOUVER — The fishing season hit the Vancouver Nisei baseball club hard when they lost their ace hurler Husso Hasebe and handy utility man Shig Tabata. Both players are now in Prince Rupert and the northern fishing area because of employment difficulties in the city.

Since the Nisei's last win against Western Bridge on June 21 in which Husso Hasebe pitched his final game, the team dropped five games in a row to sink firmly into the cellar of the Vancouver Industrial Union Senior "B" Baseball League. To date, they have played 22 games with four remaining in the schedule and their record reads 5 won, 16 lost, and 1 tied. They have two games with Western Bridge, one each with Boilermakers and Longshoremen remaining to be played.

The loss of Hasebe and Tabata has weakened the team in their losing streak. Hasebe is a versatile player who is capable of playing the nine positions on the team while small and short Tabata is missed around the [illegible]

Obviously, the team has no chance to make the playoffs this year but they stress [illegible] be back next season.

This year was the Nisei team's debut in the league and the first time they had played together as a unit. Also it was the first time since 1941 that a Nisei team had played organized baseball in Vancouver. The players come from all parts of B. C. and Alberta, places such as Vernon, [illegible] New Denver, Greenwood and Taber.

But the baseball [illegible] be all over for [illegible] the Industrial loop rings down the curtain since the team has several exhibition games carded.

The first game will be a tilt in Seattle, Washington, in the end of July. The game was arranged by the Seattle Nisei team when they contacted the Vancouver JCCA.

The Greenwood Nisei team will take on the Vancouverites some time in August, and a return game is also in the offing when the Vancouver team will travel to Greenwood on Labour Day, providing arrangements can be made.

PASSING THRU

Of course Willie wouldn't look away if a pair of trim ankles belonging to a Nisei girl would come into his eyesight. He would follow the sight with a sort of a desolate melancholy until it disappeared from sight. The new issue of True Love would be his only solace.

On the streets he would pass a Nisei whom he knew only slightly—of course Willie had few friends—but he would always wait for the first move. He would not say hello until the other person said hello. He kept his face straight ahead until the person passed him. Then he would turn around and look.

A Tormenting Refrain

The whole thing eventually got to be a sickness.

Somehow Willie developed this feeling wherever he went in the city. At the movies, restaurants, bowling alleys, and in poolrooms, he would say, "Look at all those Japs!" and a black curtain of despair would blanket his mind.

In sleep, it was worse. Dreams would pin-prick his tortured mind with sadistic relentlessness. Dreams where he would be thrown into a sea of strangers with black hair and eyes, at the height of which he would wake up screaming. The dreams would always be accompanied by a strange kind of chorus. It kept repeating "Look at all those Japs!"

I didn't know about Willie's sickness until I stumbled upon his memoirs one night. I really didn't understand the whole business. Willie's hair and eyes were the same colour as mine . . .

Fourth at Box Office

During the month of June, "Go for Broke!" ranked fourth in popularity among movie-goers at the box office. This was reported in Variety which makes a survey of 22 U.S. cities to determine the favorite movie attraction for a given period.

Ahead of GFB were The Great Caruso, On the Riviera, and Fabiola in that order.

Tommy of Go for Broke Getting Ready for Army

HONOLULU, T. H. — Henry Nakamura, having completed his role in MGM's "Westward the Women" and "The Light Touch", returned to Honolulu recently to prepare for his induction into the U.S. Army.

Nakamura's role of Tommy in "Go for Broke!" made him a screen personality overnight. Because he was so busy in Hollywood the young Nisei player did not participate in any of the premieres and other ceremonies connected with the showing of "Go for Broke!" He was on location in Utah when the movie about the 442nd was released.

Three Came Home, To Misaki, Japan

MISAKI, Japan — Three Japanese came home to the fishing town of Misaki for the first time in seven years last week to find their names on [illegible] in the communal burial grounds.

The trio had been officially listed as dead during World War II and their bereaved families had given them a solemn funeral. Actually, the three had been leading the life of modern Robinson Crusoes on Anathan Island in the mid-Pacific.

They were among the 20 Japanese holdouts who had formed the last Japanese garrison of the Pacific war on volcanic Anathan, directly north of Guam. The group surrendered to a U. S. Navy party late last month.

The removal of the markers at the Misaki cemetery provided a macabre climax to what had been a triumphant homecoming day for Kakutaro Watanabe, [illegible], Ichiro Ishiwata, 46, and Hozumi Ishiwata, 24.

The entire town turned out to give the returning men a hearty welcome. Men, women and children gathered in front of the fisheries firm the three had worked for before they were drafted in 1944.

Then the trio headed for their respective homes surrounded by townspeople carrying banners celebrating their safe return.

The first thing Hozumi Ishiwata did when he got home was to remove his own picture, framed in black, that hung above the family's Buddhist altar. Ichiro Ishiwata did the same after he changed from the dungarees issued to him by the U. S. Navy at Guam into a new kimono.

Watanabe's wife, who knows his tastes, had laid in a sizeable stock of sake.

She said, "After all, he's been drinking only fermented coconut juice."
